The Flag Salute

I pledge allegiance to my Flag, and to the Republic for which it stands—one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag and to defend it against all enemies.

Authorized Version.

General Information

1. Article XIII, of the By-Laws of the National Society, viz. that the insignia "shall be worn only on the left breast," must be complied with.

2. Roll call will be answered by State Regents for their delegations.

3. All motions must be made in writing, signed by the mover and by one or more persons seconding the motion.

4. The mover is requested to rise, announce her name and State, and send her written motion to the Recording Secretary General.

5. Robert's Rules of Order Revised is the accepted authority on parliamentary law.

6. Reports of Standing and Special Committees will have a definite time limit, which will be rigidly adhered to.

7. There will be elected the Registrar General to fill unexpired term; eight Vice-Presidents General, one of whom is to fill unexpired term.

8. Reports and material for the Proceedings and Minutes of the Congress must be typewritten in shape for the printer before they are handed in, and all such material must be sent to the table of the Recording Secretary General before the close of Congress.

9. State Regents will be given five minutes in which to present to Congress the most important work of the State for the year, and they are requested to hand at the same time to the Recording Secretary General a concise and complete typewritten report of their State work for the Proceedings.

10. Public presentation of personal gifts, other than gifts to the National Society, will not be permitted during any session of Congress.

11. All State delegations can hold meetings if they desire to do so, but, in order to comply with the Constitution and By-Laws, those States which do not have State Conferences must hold a meeting in Washington to elect their State Regent and State Vice-Regent.

12. Notices will be read at the close of each session.
